Daily Loneliness Afflicts One in Five in U.S. Daily loneliness has fallen five points to 20% since March 2021 (the early days of the COVID-19 vaccine national rollout), but the current reading reflects an uptick to a rate the U.S. has not seen since 2022. Although loneliness has a detrimental impact on general life satisfaction, it is encouraging that it appears to have a smaller effect on Liberals pressure Senate Democrats to confirm more Biden judges while ... Democrats have confirmed 213 of Biden's judicial nominees during his presidency. Another few dozen are still pending. To add to those confirmations, Senate Democrats would need to stay in Washington far longer than they had planned and also navigate a razor-thin margin that hamstrung them at times on other Biden priorities.
